CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART

On October thirteenth the season of Wednesday evening lectures will open with the first of a series of eight interpretative lectures on music by Thomas Whitney Surette. This course will be given on the second Wednesday of each month at 8:15 P.M. and will be illustrated.

Charles Theodore Carruth comes to Cleveland on October twentieth to lecture on "The Story of St. Francis," illustrated by slides of the frescos of Giotto at Padua.

The third Wednesday in each month, commencing with November is reserved for lectures on landscape gardening.

A course on "Great Masters Represented in the Museum Collections" will be given on the fourth Wednesdays by Henry Turner Bailey, the subject for October twenty-seventh being "Rubens."

A leaflet of lecture courses is to be published shortly and will be mailed to Members.

NOTES

Gallery IX will be opened October fifteenth with an exhibition of lithographs by Henri Fantin-Latour. The Collection, owned locally, is representative and the well known set of musical subjects is an almost complete one.

Owing to delay in shipping, it has been found necessary to cancel the engagement for the Exhibition of Modern French Art. The interesting exhibition of work by students of The Cleveland School of Art will remain in Gallery IX until other arrangements can be made.
